A CAUTION

To the FREEHOLDERS of the County of SUFFOLK.

WHEREAS Two People went about the Country laſt Week, as Agents, or pretending to be ſuch, and endeavoured, in a moſt unjuſtifiable Way, to impoſe on the Freeholders, by aſking, in the Name of Sir CHARLES BUNBURY, for their ſecond Votes, for Sir GERARD; this is meant as a Caution, not to let the Unwary be impoſed on. One of theſe Agents appears like a Clergyman, the other has the Appearance of a Farmer and Maltſter; they were particularly active about Lakenheath.

No Reward for taking them, as they are gone Home before this Time. One is vulgarly called Spanker.
